SCHOOL OF NURSING

CLASS OF 1964

The Bulfinch Building

WITH MANY THANKS TO MISS KEELEY

The members of the class of 1964 proudly dedicate their yearbook to Miss Margaret Keeley, R.N., B.S.N. As an instructor during her three years with us, she has stimulated many awakenings to the art of nursing. Her excellent personal nursing standards and her everpresent energy have inspired us all. Her keen interest, understanding and confidence in our class have made her our friend. In tribute and appreciation, we dedicate this yearbook. Thank you, Miss Keeley.

OOL OF NURSING

Director of Nursing

Miss Ruth Sleeper

Throughout our three years, we have continued to respect the achievements of this leader in education. She is a former President of the National League of Nursing; she has written articles for many magazines and textbooks and she represents our school and nursing at meetings here and abroad. As director of our school, regardless of her busy schedule, she continues to meet with us regularly throughout the year. The school and our class are truly indebted to you. Miss Sleeper.
